What do Study Buddies do?

Study Buddies help us implement programs from partner agencies in the library.
Some tips for working with kids
Respect your commitment to the child

They look forward to their time with you and can feel let down when you cancel.

If it is necessary to cancel a session, please call.
Be respectful of differences
Act as their role model

Use kid-friendly body language, tone of voice, and language.
Respect their privacy

Keep any information they share confidential.
Do not discuss inappropriate topics

- Family Finances
- Politics
- Human Sexuality
- Religion
- Social Issues

Or any topic that could make the child feel uncomfortable
Do not share personal information

You should not give your contact information to the student.
Keep physical and emotional boundaries

Use kind words to show encouragement instead.
