

World Environment Day

MANY SPECIES ONE PLANET ONE FUTURE | JUNE 5 2010

Texas Honeybee Guild with the Pollards

1:00 - Brandon & Susan Pollard of Texas Honeybee Guild will bring an enclosed observation hive and talk about the joys and challenges of keeping bees. The Pollards, who market Extra Virgin Zip Code Honey, maintain over 100 hives spread across the metroplex.

Dallas Farmer's Market with Sol Calinao

1:40 - The Dallas Farmers Market is one of the largest open air markets in the United States and is recognized as a true farmers market where farmers sell their crops. Sol Calinao is public relations director for the market.

Raising Backyard Chickens with Dan Probst

2:20 - At Bageniece Farms in Poetry, Texas, Dan raises chickens, ducks, turkeys and geese. He has been instrumental in advancing the cause of backyard chicken keeping in North Texas. Come learn what's involved in raising chickens and see a "chicken ark" (also known as a "chicken condo").

Max Kalhammer, City Bicycle Coordinator

3:00 - Max will provide an overview of efforts underway to improve the City's bicycling culture and bicycle-related infrastructure. He will explain the work of a new Bicycle Advisory Committee which is helping to draft an updated Dallas Bike Plan and explore the unfolding long-term vision.

Dallas Urban Forest Advisory Committee

3:40 - Robert Curry will speak about the important environmental, recreational, social and aesthetic benefits of a thriving urban forest and how our actions can contribute to a healthier urban forest in Dallas.

Film Screenings + Environmental Fair

1:00 - Mad City Chickens. How one urban community changed the status quo about raising backyard chickens. 79 minutes; Library Auditorium (1st floor)

3:00 - Film TBA (check www.dallaslibrary.org/worldEnvironmentDay for more information)
